

BARBERLAWFIRM

Court Admissions

- Arkansas state and federal courts

Professional Associations

- Defense Research Institute, Employment section member
- Arkansas Bar Association, Labor and employment section member
- Pulaski County Bar Association member

Community Involvement

- Boys and Girls Club of Central Arkansas, board member
- Recovery Centers of Arkansas, board member
- Counsel, Lakewood United Methodist Church

Practice Areas

- Employment law/wage and hour
- Products liability
- Premises liability
- General commercial litigation

BARBERLAWFIRM

James D. Robertson

Attorney, Member

Professional Experience

Jim Robertson joined the Barber Law Firm in 2000 after serving as a trial attorney for the Prosecuting Attorney's Office for the Sixth Judicial District of Arkansas. He previously served as a law clerk to Justice Robert L. Brown on the Arkansas Supreme Court. Mr. Robertson is a member of the firm's Labor and Employment Law Practice Group, Litigation Practice Group, and Products Liability Practice Group. He serves the firm's clients as lead counsel in a wide range of matters that include class actions, employment law, product liability, and commercial transactions, among others.

Education

- J.D. with honors, University of Arkansas School of Law, 1995
- Bachelor's degree, University of Arkansas College of Business, 1992

Presentation & Thought Leadership

- Harmonie Group, "Arkansas Employment Legislative and Case Law Updates."
- CLE program, An Employer's Guide to Crisis Management.
- Numerous training programs to clients on emerging employment issues including medical marijuana in the workplace.
- Responsible for annual insurance carrier training on developments in Arkansas law.
- Regular contributor to the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce on Employment law matters.